2009/2010 ACADEMIC SESSION: GREETINGS

As the University reopens for the 2009/2010 academic session, the Vice-Chancellor, Professor Olufemi Bamiro, FNSE, FAS has called on all staff and students to allow peace and tranquility reign within the campus.

Professor Bamiro urged all to join hands with the Management to take the University to greater heights.

He charged the students to shun cultism, thuggery and all acts capable of destroying the peaceful coexistence of all on campus. He has also requested all staff members to continue to be diligent and dedicated at all times.

The Vice-Chancellor has assured that Management will not relent in its efforts to make the University environment conducive for teaching, learning, research and living for all.

He wished all a Happy and Prosperous New Year and a fruitful New Session.

Signed
