A CLARION CALL TO ALL ALUMNI

My very dear, worthy and highly cherished alumnus/alumnae of the great University of Ibadan.

The University of Ibadan is sixty years old. In this regard, there is an urgent need to come to its rescue so that it can positively and effectively tackle the problems of 'old age' as well as emerging challenges in this age of globalization.

As the newly appointed Pro-Chancellor and Chairman of Council, I am determined to leave the University of Ibadan better than I met it. With God on my side, the University should rank among the best Universities not only in Africa but in the world in the next couple of years. This clarion call, therefore, is to ask for your support as worthy alumnus/alumnae. Please let us join hands to help the University towards achieving its Vision, which is 'to be a world-class institution for academic excellence geared towards meeting societal needs'

I am sure, I can count on you towards achieving this goal. No doubt, we can succeed in this labour of love, but only if we are all committed to making the University of Ibadan one of the greatest in the world, as it once was.

By the grace of God, I will get in touch with you very soon to enlist your support in the execution of our plans for the upliftment and enhancement of our University that is so dear to all Nigerians.

Please accept my profound and sincere regards as the new Pro-Chancellor and Chairman of Council of the first and foremost University in Nigeria, the University of Ibadan, which doubles as your Alma Mater

Thank you and God bless.

Yours in the service of the University

Chief Wole Olanipekun, SAN

Pro-Chancellor and Chairman of Council
