2011 GENERAL ELECTIONS

Management hereby informs the University Community, particularly the students that the University Senate has not declared any holiday in respect of the 2011 General Elections. The elections are scheduled to hold in April but only on Saturdays, therefore normal official/academic activities scheduled to take place on week days are not expected to be hampered.

Members of the community including the students are encouraged to go out and vote, as and when due.

The Vice-Chancellor wishes all a peaceful and hitch-free voting exercise.

Thank you and God bless.
