Applications are invited from researchers in the field of Neurosciences and Ophthalmology for this competitive research grant. Inter-disciplinary research and proposals on common conditions in the environment will be highly favoured.

Interested individuals are expected to submit a detailed proposal of the intended research using the usual format: Introduction; Background information; Objectives (General and Specific); Hypotheses; Study Design; Data Handling & Analysis; Ethical Issues; Protection and Human Subjects (if applicable); Detailed Budget with justification Research; Timeline and Disclosure of Available Resources.

The budget can include allowances for stationery, transportation; data analysis and report preparation but not remuneration of Personnel involved in the study. Emphasis should be placed on the purchase of essential equipment and assay kits (purchase of computer is excluded). The total budget should not exceed One Million Naira (₦1,000,000.00).

Each application should be accompanied by the following: Brief biosketch of the applicant; Letter of support from the applicant’s Head of Department; Letter of ethical clearance by the Institution’s Ethical Review Board.

The application should be addressed to the Chairman, BO Osuntokun Trust, University of Ibadan, Post Office Box 9388, University of Ibadan, Ibadan. The closing date for the submission of proposals is Thursday, 30 September, 2010.

Omotayo O. Ikotun (Mrs.)
Registrar